

PRESENTATION HOUSE

A CENTRE FOR THE PERFORMING AND VISUAL ARTS

333 Chesterfield Avenue, North Vancouver, B.C. V7M 3G9, 986-1351

PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

Soak up the romance & vitality of the great jazz era.

The exhibition, JAZZ: WILLIAM CLAXTON offers 90 luscious photos by Claxton, of all the jazz greats: Ella, Billy, The Duke, "Bird", and much more.

Accompanied at PRESENTATION HOUSE GALLERY in North Vancouver by a rare collection of vintage record jackets, courtesy of Eric Metcalfe ("Dr. Brute" to some), and taped jazz from 1950s recordings.

There's more:

A four-concert jazz series, in cooperation with the folks who produce the annual International Jazz Festival in Vancouver, The Coastal Jazz & Blues Society.

The first performance is FREE, during the opening reception for the exhibition, March 2 (8 to 10pm), by the JOE BJORNSON QUARTET.

For more information call Karen or Diane, 986-1351

JAZZ: WILLIAM CLAXTON is prepared & circulated by Curatorial Assistance, Los Angeles