BODY, MIND AND TECHNOLOGY

Poetry Reading:

TECHNOLOGY AND LANGUAGE

Ryan Knighton, Vancouver, Andrew Klobucar & David Ayre (Global Telelanguage Resources), San Francisco

Thursday, January 25, 7:30pm at Presentation House Gallery

Public Talk:

DOT TUER, DISEMBODIED STATES: VISION, THE BODY AND VIRTUALITY

Dot Tuer is a writer and critic whose essays on new media and contemporary art have been widely published. She teaches at the Ontario College of Art and Design and is a frequent guest lecturer, most recently at the DIA Centre for the Arts, the Chicago Institute of the Arts, the Sydney Biennale, and the National Museum of Fine Arts in Argentina. She is currently researching a book that examines how issues of nature, technology and the body are reflected in the work of contemporary Canadian artists.

Saturday, January 27, 10:00am-1:00pm at Labatt Theatre, Harbour Centre, Simon Fraser University, 515 W. Hastings

This series is co-sponsored by:
