The Polygon Gallery presents Dog Days, an exhibition that focuses on the relationship between canines and humans through photograph and video works.

Dog Days is a survey of the camera's interactions with our canine companions. Today, dogs figure prominently in visual culture through Instagram feeds, viral videos, and memes, amid other media, yet our photographic obsession with dogs is as old as the camera itself. Dog Days features contemporary works, classic images, and vintage photographs from several archives and collections, considering how dogs have shaped, and are shaped by, human society. Together, these pictures reveal how dogs have remained an enduring metaphor and a potent symbol in human history, an integral part of everyday life, and a favourite subject of the camera.

Bring your dog! All dogs on leashes are welcome to visit the exhibition.

Exhibition Tours every Saturday at 2pm.

Dog Days* is on view June 25 - September 1, 2019 at The Polygon Gallery.

Private Dog Portrait Sessions

In addition to seeing the exhibition, visitors may also choose to book a private dog portrait session with award-winning Canadian artist Shari Hatt, or a tintype portrait with Vancouver-based artist Geoffrey Wallang. Each of these artists will be available for a limited number of days during the exhibition. Bookings for a portrait session can be made by contacting The Polygon Gallery directly.
