

A bride and groom are standing in a field of tall, green grasses. The groom is on the left, wearing a white dress shirt, a black bow tie, and black suspenders. The bride is on the right, wearing a white strapless wedding dress and holding a bouquet of flowers. They are both looking at each other. In the background, there is a body of water and a city skyline with several tall buildings. The sky is overcast.

Designed by Governor General's Award-winning Patkau Architects, the Gallery is a striking building that gleams on the harbourfront, rising in waves to the North Shore peaks, and beckoning visitors to its doors.

As a non-profit, public gallery, venue rental revenues directly fund the Gallery's groundbreaking exhibitions and programs.
